

HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT INSTRUCTIONS FOR FAN COIL UNITS AND HELIOTHERMS

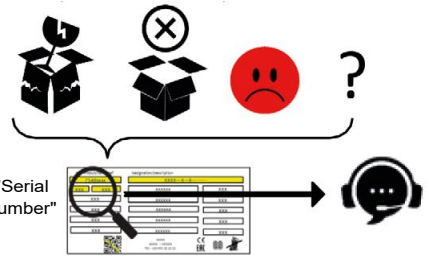

EN/ Read the instruction manual before installation

Handling

Delivery

Installation

Storage

Safety – To be read before any installation or use of the unit

---

Children and persons with limited physical, sensory or mental capabilities must not use the unit without supervision.

---

The power supply to the unit must include an omnipolar disconnection device within the installation which will ensure a complete disconnection under overvoltage category III conditions.

---

The unit must be disconnected from all the power supplies connected to the unit and its accessories before any intervention.

---

The unit must be installed in accordance with the national rules governing electrical installation.

---

The unit must be secured in accordance with the instruction manual.

---

If the unit has heating elements, the minimum air flows recommended in the instructions must be respected.

---